THE HARDWARE MAN

Robert Morris
Financier of the Revolution

An immigrant boy, he ran errands for a Philadelphia store—worked, studied, saved a little out of meager earnings against later needs. And during the Revolutionary war Morris gave generously of his resources for the blessed cause. His savings helped make the Nation.

It is unlikely you will be called on to supply funds to conduct a war for independence. It is quite likely, though, that you will need savings to tide you over a family sick spell or save you from misfortune. Have you set aside anything for the rainy day?

Start an account at this bank with a part of your next salary. Add to the nest egg every pay day. Watch the fund grow in a safe place and be able to face the future courageously and independently.

Multiply your money in our care.

—TWENTIETH CENTURY COYNNESS.

"There is a very excellent reason why a girl shouldn't smoke."
"What?" she demanded.
"Makes her less agreeable to kiss."
"Well, I'll wait till somebody wants to kiss me," she said; "when they do, I'll give up cigarettes—and take to a pipe!"—Woman's Home Companion.

NATURAL INDIGNATION.

Miss Pansy Prettin is again refusing to speak to her father. She asked him what he thought of her short skirt and high-top shoes. He said he thought she'd look more properly dressed if she'd put on her long nightgown over the entire outfit.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of constable, precinct No. 5, Luna County, in the election to be held January 8, 1917.

JESS FULLER

FORD

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Three strong reasons urge you to buy the Ford car: First, because of its record of satisfactory service to more than fifteen hundred thousand owners; Second, because of the reliability of the Company which makes it; Third, because of its large radiator and inclined fan, streamline hood, crown fenders front and rear, black finish, nickel trimmings, it is most attractive in appearance. To these must be added its wonderful economy in operation and maintenance—about two cents a mile; likewise the fact that by reason of its simplicity in construction anyone can operate and care for it. Nine thousand Ford agents make Ford service as universal as the car. Touring Car $360, Runabout $345, Coupelet $505, Town Car $505, Sedan $645—f. o. b. Detroit. On sale at
